Criminal Homicide

Criminal homicide, as defined in the Uniform Crime Reporting Program, is murder and non-negligent manslaughter: the willful (non-negligent) killing of one human being by another. The classification of this offense, as for all other Crime Index offenses, is based solely on police investigation as opposed to the determination of a court, medical examiner, coroner, jury, or other judicial body. Not included in the count for this offense classification are deaths caused by negligence, suicide, or accident, justifiable homicides, and attempts to murder or assaults to murder, which are scored as aggravated assaults.

YEAR	OFFENSES	RATE PER 1,000	CASES CLEARED	PERCENT CLEARED	NUMBER OF ARRESTS
2004*	87	0.3	74	85.1	78
2005	86	0.3	67	77.9	60
2006	104	0.3	75	72.1	73
2007	114	0.1	78	68.4	85
2008	114	0.1	89	78.1	100

* The number of homicides in 2004, which was actually 88, was reported to the FBI UCR Program as 87 homicides due to a reduction in the previous year's total by 1 homicide. This reduction was the result of a 2003 homicide being re-classified as a justified police action shooting in December 2003.

 The Indianapolis Police Department was merged with the law enforcement division of the Marion County Sheriff's Department in January 2007. Crime counts prior to 2007 reflect the old IPD Service District (approximately 86 square miles); crime counts for 2007 and later reflect the IMPD Service District (approximately 366 square miles).

CRIMINAL HOMICIDE

Forcible rape, as defined in the Uniform Crime Reporting Program, is the carnal knowledge of a female forcibly and against her will. Assaults or attempts to commit rape by force or threat of force are also included; however, statutory rape (without force) and other sex offenses are excluded.

* For the first half of 2008, the computer system used to generate this district-level report did not allow un-founded crimes to be deducted from the counts of crimes for each district. Therefore, the totals for some cateories on this report are higher than the department-wide totals presented on previous pages. The department-wide totals are more accurate.

Due to rounding, totals may not equal 100%.

1   The Reporting Center frequently uses 0000 when an officer does not state a time in the report. Unknown times are reported as 0000. Therefore this category is artificially high.

2   As part of an technical error, this report was generated several weeks after the "Reported Crime by District" report. Since the UCR database is continually updated , the totals shown on this report vary from previous reports. Negative numbers indicate there were more unfounded reports for that time period than reported.
